I/We certify the horse sold is the horse registered with the American Quarter Horse Association as described on the front of this Certificate of Registration.
We hereby authorize AQHA to record the transfer of ownership of the horse.

X
Signature of NOEL D COSCA or an authorized agent. Authorization must be on file with AQHA.

If consigned to auction sale, please give name, date and mailing address of sale company. We recommend you not use this Transfer Report if going through an auction, but use a traditional form separate from the certificate. This is recommended in case horse does not sell.

Company Name Mailing Address Date of Auction

A transfer fee is required to process an ownership change. To receive the lowest possible fee, the buyer must be an AQHA Member. An open Membership will automatically be charged to the buyer if he is not already a current AQHA Member. There are three types of membership - open, amateur and youth. For a complete listing of current fees and to determine the type of membership you need, please refer to our Web site at www.aqha.com, the AQHA rule book or you may call our office and one of our representatives will be glad to assist you.

DECEASED/SOLD WITHOUT PAPERS: If a horse is deceased or has been sold without papers, please return the original Certificate of Registration along with a signed statement providing the date of death or sale. We will return the certificate to you for deceased horses.

CORRECTIONS: If information on the certificate needs to be corrected, a correction affidavit must be filed (form available from AQHA) as well as current photographs and a correction fee. If it is an update to change to a gelding, please send a signed statement giving us the approximate date gelded. To add a brand, please include a diagram of the brand showing the location. There is no charge for geld and brand additions.

PHOTOGRAPH REPLACEMENT: If you would like to have the photograph on the front of the certificate replaced with a more current picture, please submit a 3/4 left or right side view photograph using AQHA's guidelines for taking photographs. There is a replacement fee for updating the photograph.
